

broker transport subtracts stamps written by two threads, so it can come out negative on one clock

